

Inkberrow Bowls Club - Data Protection Policy Form General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) 2018

Personal Information

Personal Information taken directly from the Members Joining Form is stored and used by Inkberrow Bowls Club as follows:

Stored:- The original paper Members Joining Form is kept by the Club Secretary and stored away from the club.

Use:- Information from this form is used to compile membership name, emergency contact no, telephone no., postal address and email lists. These list will be maintained by the club secretary, stored on a home computer with password access and up to date anti-virus software.

A telephone and email list (member, email address & telephone number) will be compiled and distributed to Inkberrow Bowls Club committee members, Club and League Captains and Vice Captains, as requested by them, to carry out their respective club duties.

Requests for member to member telephone numbers will only be given out with prior approval of the person being phoned.

Emergency Contact information will be kept on a separate list and made available to Club and League Captains and Vice Captains. A copy will also be available in the clubhouse.

Email addresses are stored and used in two groups for easy distribution of emails. These groups are 'Inkberrow Members' and 'Committee Members'.

As of October 2020 all emails sent from the Club Secretary will be by 'Blind Carbon Copy' (BCC). This ensures that members email addresses are not shared across the membership.

Postal addresses will be kept by the Club Secretary in paper and/or electronic form. These addresses will be used for the distribution of messages/information that cannot be easily sent by email or for those members not on email.

Personal information may be further passed to the Worcestershire Bowls Associations to which the Club is affiliated. Such information shall only be given when directly related to matches, competitions or events that an individual member has already agreed to take part in. Personal information may also be passed to Bowls England at their request ie. member playing in national competitions.

Personal information shall not be passed to any third parties for any other reason without the express consent of members.

Members Contact information will not be stored on our website.

Personal Information will be collected at the point of member application, updated at anytime upon member request and deleted once membership ceases.

Member requests to update or delete any Personal Information should be made to the Club Secretary.
